to divide the Town into Wards.

SECT. 3. It shall be the duty of the selectmen of the town of Roxbury, as soon as may be, after the passage of this act, and its acceptance by the inhabitants, as hereinafter provided, to divide said town into eight wards,¹ as follows, to wit: first, by drawing a line between the second and third parishes, as near the old territorial parish line as may be convenient, and constituting the second parish one ward; second, by drawing a line in the same manner between the first and third parishes, and dividing the third parish into two wards, to contain, as nearly as may be convenient, an equal number of inhabitants; and, third, by dividing the first parish into five wards, as nearly equal in number of inhabitants as may be consistent with convenience in other respects.

To be revised

COMMON COUNCIL.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT.

SECT. 1. The President shall take the chair at the hour to which the Council shall have adjourned; shall call the members to order, and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall cause the minutes of the preceding meeting to be read, and proceed to business. In the absence of the President, any member present can call the Council to order, and preside until a President pro tempore shall be chosen by ballot. If, upon a ballot for President pro tempore, no member shall receive a majority of votes, the Council shall proceed to a second ballot, in which a plurality of votes shall prevail.

SECT. 2. He shall preserve order and decorum; he may speak to points of order in preference to other members; and shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council, on motion of any member regularly seconded.

SECT. 3. He shall declare all votes; but if any member doubt the vote, the President, without further debate upon the question, shall require the members voting in the affirmative and negative, to rise and stand until they are counted, and he shall declare the result; but no decision shall be declared, unless a quorum of the Council shall have voted.

SECT. 4. He shall rise to address the Council, or to put a question, but may read sitting.

SECT. 5. The President may call any member to the chair; provided such substitution shall not continue longer than one evening. When the Council shall determine to go into Committee of the Whole, the President shall appoint the member who shall take the chair. The President may express his opinion on any subject under debate; but in such case he shall leave the chair, and appoint some other member to take it; and he shall not resume the chair while the same question is pending. But the President may state facts, and give his opinion on questions of order, without leaving his place.

SECT. 6. On all questions and motions, the President shall take the sense of the Council by yeas and nays, provided one-third of the members present shall so require.

SECT. 7. In all cases the President may vote.

SECT. 8. He shall propound all questions in the order in which they are moved, unless the subsequent motion shall be previous in its nature; except that in naming sums and fixing times, the largest sum and longest time shall be put first.

SECT. 9. After a motion is stated by the President, it shall be disposed of by vote of the Council, unless the mover withdraw it before a decision or amendment.

SECT. 10. SECT. 11. He shall consider a motion to adjourn as always first in order; and that motion and the motion to lay on the table, or to take from the table, shall be decided without debate.

SECT. 12. He shall put the previous question in the following form:—“Shall the main question be now put?”— and all debate upon the main question shall be suspended until the previous question shall be decided. After the adoption of the previous question, the sense of the Council shall forthwith be taken upon amendments reported by a committee, upon pending amendments, and then upon the main question.

SECT. 13. On the previous question, no member shall speak more than once without leave; and all incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for the previous question, shall be decided without debate, except on appeal, and on such appeal, no member shall be allowed to speak more than once without leave of the Council.

SECT. 14. When two or more members happen to rise at once, the President shall name the member who is first to speak.

SECT. 15. All Committees shall be appointed and announced by the President, except such as the Council determine to elect by ballot; and it shall be in order for any member to move that the President be appointed on any Committee.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

SECT. 16. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Council, he shall rise in his place, and respectfully address the presiding officer; shall confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid personality. He shall sit down as soon as he has done speaking. No member shall speak out of his place without leave of the President.

SECT. 17. No member, in debate, shall mention another member by his name; but may describe him by the Ward he represents, or such other designation as may be intelligible and respectful.

SECT. 18. No member speaking shall be interrupted by another, but by rising to call to order, or to correct a mistake. When a member is called to order, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain, and the Council, if appealed to, shall decide on the case without debate; and if the decision is against the member, he shall not be permitted to speak, unless by way of excuse for the same, until he has made satisfaction.

SECT. 19. No member shall speak more than twice to the same question, without leave of the Council; nor more than once, if objection be made, until all other members choosing to speak, shall have spoken; and if, on the "previous question," no more than once without leave.

SECT. 20. When a motion is made and seconded it shall be considered by the Council, and not otherwise; and no member shall be permitted to submit a motion in writing, until he has read the same in his place, and it has been seconded.

SECT. 21. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President direct, or any member of the Council request it.

SECT. 22. When a vote has passed, it shall be in order for any member of the majority, to move for a reconsideration thereof on the same or succeeding meeting, and if the motion is seconded, it shall be open to debate; but if the motion to reconsider it is not made till the next meeting, the subject shall not be reconsidered, unless a majority of the whole Council shall vote therefor. And no more than one motion for the reconsideration of any vote shall be permitted.

SECT. 23. No member shall be permitted to stand up, to the interruption of another, whilst any member is speaking; or to pass unnecessarily between the President and the person speaking.

SECT. 24. Every member who shall be in the Council when a question is put, shall vote, unless for special reasons excused.

SECT. 25. The division of a question may be called for when the sense will admit of it.

SECT. 26. When the reading of a paper is called for and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a vote of the Council.

SECT. 27. No standing rule or order of the Council shall be suspended, unless three-fourths of the members present shall consent thereto; nor shall any rule or order be repealed or amended, without one day's notice being given of the motion therefor, nor unless a majority of the whole Council shall concur therein.

SECT. 28. Every member shall take notice of the day and hour to which the Council may stand adjourned, and shall give his punctual attendance accordingly.

SECT. 29. No member shall be obliged to be on more than three Standing Committees at the same time, nor to be chairman of more than one.

SECT. 30. All memorials and other papers addressed to the Council, shall be presented by the President, or by a member in his place, who shall explain the subject thereof, and they shall lie on the table, to be taken up in the order in which they are presented, unless the Council shall otherwise direct. And every member presenting a petition, remonstrance, order, resolution, or other paper, shall endorse his name thereon, with a brief statement of the nature and object of the instrument.

SECT. 31. Standing Committees of this Council shall be appointed on the following subjects, viz.: On Election and Returns, and on Enrolled Ordinances and Resolutions, each to consist of three members.

SECT. 32. No Committee shall sit during the sitting of the Council, without special leave.

SECT. 33. The rules of proceedings in Council shall be observed in Committee of the Whole, so far as they may be applicable, excepting the rules limiting the time of speaking; but no member shall speak twice to any question, until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

SECT. 34. When Committees of the Council chosen by ballot, or Committees consisting of one member from each Ward, have been appointed or elected, whether joint or otherwise, the first meeting thereof shall be notified by the Clerk, by direction of the President, and they shall organize by the choice of Chairman, and report to the Council; and when Committees, other than those above specified, are nominated by the President, the person first named shall be Chairman, and in case of the absence of the Chairman, the Committee shall have power to appoint a Chairman pro tem.

SECT. 35. All messages to the Mayor and Aldermen shall be drawn up by the Clerk and sent by the Messenger.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WARD OFFICERS.

(From the Cambridge Municipal Register.)

OF COUNTING VOTES.

1. Results of elections, how determined.
2. Same subject.
3. Effect of Plurality Law. To determine whole number of ballots.
4. When an office is to be filled by but one person, &c.
5. When an office is to be filled by more than one person, &c.

6. Whole number of ballots.
7. Same subject.

OF KEEPING WARD RECORDS.

1. Clerk to keep the records.
2. Warrant and return to be copied and certified. Record of meeting. Polls opened. Polls closed. Election in all the Wards. Election in single Ward. Vote declared. Meeting dissolved. Clerk's attestation.

OF COUNTING VOTES.

1. In order to determine the result of any election of any civil officer or officers in this Commonwealth, the whole number of persons who voted at such election shall first be ascertained, by counting the whole number of separate ballots given in, and the person or persons who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be deemed and declared to be elected; and in all returns of elections, the whole number of ballots given shall be distinctly stated, but blank pieces of paper shall not be counted as ballots.

Results of elections, how determined. Stat. 1856, ch. 137, § 1.

2. If at any election where more than one civil officer is to be elected to the same office, any two or more candidates shall receive an equal number of votes, being a plurality, by reason whereof the whole number to be elected cannot be completed,

Same subject. Ibid. § 2.

the candidates having such equal number of votes shall be deemed not to be elected.

Effect of Plurality Law.

To determine whole number of ballots.

3. By the establishing of the plurality law, in all cases, in this Commonwealth, the difficulties which formerly existed in determining the result of an election have been almost entirely removed. Errors in regard to the whole number of ballots may, however, be made by Ward Officers, and they should be particularly careful in ascertaining it exactly, and recording it correctly, since otherwise the whole number of ballots as returned by them will not agree with the sum of the ballots given for each candidate. They should bear in mind that, although several ballots for different officers may be enclosed in one envelope, or printed upon one ticket, the ballots for each office should be counted separately, as much so as if they were enclosed in separate envelopes, or printed on separate tickets, and deposited in separate boxes.

When an office is to be filled by but one person, &c.

4. When an office is to be filled by but one person, as Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Register of Deeds, County Treasurer, Mayor, Warden, Ward Clerk, &c., the whole number of ballots may be ascertained correctly, after counting the votes for each candidate, by adding together all the votes cast for each candidate for the same office.

When an office is to be filled by more than one person, &c.

5. When an office is to be filled by more than one person, as Senators, Representatives, County Commissioners, and Special Commissioners, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, School Committee, and Ward Inspectors, the whole number of ballots for each of those officers should be counted separately, as soon as the box is turned, and before the votes become mixed. Every ballot having upon it one name or more for Senators should be counted as one ballot for Senators, and every ballot having upon it one name or more for Aldermen should be counted as one ballot for Aldermen, and so on, through the whole list of offices to be filled.

Whole number of ballots.

6. The object of the law in ascertaining the whole number of ballots is to ascertain the whole number of voters who vote for a candidate or candidates for each office, and therefore, if a person votes for only one Representative when he might vote for five on the same ballot, his vote is to be counted as a ballot in making up the whole number cast for that office. It represents a voter, and is a ballot.

7. But if a person votes for Representatives only, that vote should not be counted in making up the whole number for Senators, or if a person votes for Mayor and Aldermen, that vote, which is composed of two ballots, should be counted as one ballot for Mayor, and one ballot for Aldermen, but not as a ballot for Common Councilmen, nor Inspectors of Elections, &c., as frequently happens where the tickets are taken as the ballots.

Same subject.

OF KEEPING WARD RECORDS.

1. It is the Clerk's duty to keep the records, and they should be signed by him alone, and not by the Warden and Inspectors.

Clerk to keep the records.

2. The warrant calling the meeting, and the officer's return thereon, should be first copied on the book, and certified as true copies. The record should then proceed in this form, varied to meet the circumstances of the case:—

Warrant and return to be copied and certified.

“Pursuant to the foregoing warrant, the inhabitants of Ward No. —, qualified to vote as the law directs, assembled at the time and place and for the purposes therein expressed.

Record of meeting.

“At — o'clock, A. M., the warrant calling the meeting was read by the Warden, who then called upon the inhabitants of said Ward, qualified by law to vote, to give in their ballots for the purposes expressed in said warrant.

Polls opened.

“At — o'clock, P. M., the polls were closed, and the whole number of ballots given in having been sorted and counted by the Warden and Inspectors of Elections in the manner provided by law, the result was as follows:—

Polls closed.

“The whole number of ballots for Governor was —; A. B. had —;

Election in all the Wards.

C. D. had —.

“The whole number of ballots for Senators was —;

E. F. had —;

G. H. had —.”

(And so on through the whole list. When the election is determined by each Ward alone, as Common Councilmen, Warden, Inspectors, and Ward Clerk, the record should be made up thus:—)

Election in single Ward.

“The whole number of ballots for Common Councilmen was —;

A. B. had —,

C. D. had —,

E. F. had —,

G. H. had —,

And they are elected.

M. N. had —,

O. P. had —.”

(And so on through the list.)

Vote declared.

“The state of the ballots, as sorted, counted and recorded as above in open Ward meeting, was declared to the meeting by the Warden.

Meeting dissolved.

“The meeting then dissolved.

Clerk's attestation.

“A true record.

X. Y. Z., Ward Clerk.”

N O T E .

THE frontispiece of the Municipal Register for the year 1858 presents a view of the birth-place of WARREN. It was engraved from a drawing by Mrs. S. C. Bugbee of Boston, while the house was in existence, and just before it was taken down in 1846. It will be remembered that it stood upon the premises now on the corner of Warren and Winthrop Streets, from which site rises a dwelling house of stone, durable in the material of which it is constructed, and pleasing in its simple but beautiful proportions. A vine rich with clustering foliage screens from notice two tablets, on the front walls of the mansion, which bear these inscriptions:

ON THIS SPOT STOOD A HOUSE, ERECTED IN 1720 BY JOSEPH WARREN OF BOSTON, REMARKABLE FOR BEING THE BIRTH-PLACE OF GENERAL JOSEPH WARREN, HIS GRANDSON, WHO WAS KILLED ON BUNKER HILL, JUNE 17, 1775.

JOHN WARREN, A DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN AND ANATOMIST, WAS ALSO BORN HERE. THE ORIGINAL MANSION BEING IN RUINS, THIS HOUSE WAS BUILT BY JOHN C. WARREN, M. D., IN 1846, SON OF THE LAST NAMED, AS A PERMANENT MEMORIAL OF THE SPOT.

Sacred associations gather about the hallowed ground where a patriot was born, whose heroic life and noble gifts were freely surrendered to the cause of his country in a struggle memorable throughout all time.

The last words of WARREN, at the commencement of the battle, were the inspired utterances of a loyal American citizen. Having passed the 16th of June at Watertown, attending the deliberations of the Provincial Congress, he repaired to Cambridge early on the following morning, and was present at a meeting of the Committee of Safety. About noon, the people were alarmed by a summons to arms, the news spreading in all directions: "The regulars are landing at Charlestown." GEN. WARREN mounted his horse, eager for a post of danger and of duty. Arriving at the base of Bunker Hill, he dismounted near the rail-fence breastwork. Gen. Putnam met him and offered to receive his orders; which WARREN declined giving, but immediately asked of the veteran Putnam where he could be most useful. Gen. Putnam pointed to the redoubt, some six hundred yards distant on Breed's Hill, saying, "There you will be covered." "Don't think," said WARREN, "I come to seek a place of safety; but tell me where the onset will be most furious." Putnam's finger still pointed in the direction of the redoubt. "That is the enemy's object; and if that can be defended the day is ours." * WARREN moved with quick steps to the redoubt, musket in hand, and was received with loud cheers. Here, also he refused to assume the command proffered by Col. Prescott, nobly replying, "I have not yet received my commission; I come as a volunteer with my musket to serve under you, and shall be happy to learn from a soldier of your experience." In the hard fought engagement which succeeded, WARREN fell a noble sacrifice for Liberty.

For the Committee,

HENRY P. SHED.

N O T E .

THE Committee appointed by an order dated May 3d, 1858, to prepare the Municipal Register for the present year, have, in compliance with the order, prepared the same in the usual form. They would suggest, however, the expediency of printing the Ordinances and Register separately in the future. They believe as a larger edition of the Ordinances than of the Register is needed (the former answering for several and the latter for a single year), and for other reasons, that publications in the form proposed will be more convenient and less expensive. The Committee would also suggest that as the Laws relating to Municipal affairs are very numerous, and can always be readily found, those only of an important character be printed, and that a full reference to the others be published with the Ordinances, with the subjects arranged alphabetically and properly indexed. The Committee have caused a list of the laws relating to Municipal matters for the years 1856, '57 and '58, to be inserted in the Index, under "Statutes," and as these are not very numerous, they are arranged in the order of their passage.
